

Believing in eternal life

Many people want to have a healthy, long life. Many desire success and prosperity, while others want peace in God's presence. In this life everyone is motivated by spiritual and material desires, that will have an impact on our life after death.

What is real life?

"Jesus said (...), I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies." (Joh.11, 25)

Human beings, like all other creatures, come and go.

The spiritual man believes in the never-ending life of the soul in eternity. As man dies, the soul will separate from the body and continue to live where his formative consciousness will lead him.

A person, whose life has been directed by love, will remain being connected to the aspects of love such as mercy, compassion and charity in the afterlife.

A materially oriented person will remain connected to I-related aspects, like pursuit of success, wealth and prosperity, even after his death. If we will walk the way of love, reflecting on following Jesus, who is love and life, we will live forever even after death.

The goodness of God will deliver us from any remaining debt.

All souls are united in Christ.

"For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ." (1 Cor. 12, 12)

May all souls find their true home in God's nature and experience eternal life through the love of Christ.
