

Lord, thy will be done

The supportive intellectual characteristics of a person include will and faith . Depending on your personal development one or the other aspect of these will be more pronounced. By holistic development of body, mind and soul man will be able to develop his existing potential in a stronger way. Creativity, meditation, prayer, music and faith will contribute to this. In addition, a person can open himself more or less to secular or spiritual aspects. The spiritual man will seek contentment in God, the material man will crave the fulfillment of his worldly desires.

The development of willpower in young childhood is supportive to strengthen self- awareness and personal development. Character development and a deeper understanding of faith are signposts for the spiritual direction and progress of a person. To promote and train these qualities is the duty of our society. Christian faith in the Triune God and His infinite love is the basis for a contented and happy life. Jesus gives us suggestions:

The Beatitudes

“But when he saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down, his disciples came to him .

And he opened his mouth and taught them, saying :

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven .

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called sons of God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you for my sake and say all manner of evil against you, when they lie so .

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven. For so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.” (Mt.5)

By deliberately focussing on Jesus Christ, a close relationship with his abiding love will be established.

This love will give us confidence and joy in our lives. It is no longer the principle of "my will," but "Thy will be done" .

When a man decides that the will of God will be done in his life, he will renounce his own desires and worldly ideas.

Faith in God's loving care is rewarded with inner fulfillment and sublime joy . Dedication and devotion to divine guidance will strengthen faith in the love and goodness of God.

The way of love is the way to eternal life and it will lead us to inner peace. Then certainly not ephemeral, worldly success will be dominant in our life, but the belief in the everlasting love of the one God.

Thus, in the here and now, love will become supreme reality in our lives.

Willibald